

Little John just turned 5 years old!
Mommy and Daddy decided he was ready to use the big potty for the very first time.

After years of practicing with his small potty, Little John was very excited to finally use the big potty.
He felt like a big boy!

With determination, Little John entered the bathroom, ready to sit on the toilet and take his first poo on the big potty.

Just as he was about to sit down, Little John heard something unusual. It sounded like someone was singing!

Curious, Little John turned around and saw a head poking out of the toilet bowl, singing his favorite song.

"Skibidi dop dop dop yes yes," sang the toilet.
"Skibidi dop dop dip dip."

Little John was scared and confused at first. A human head in the toilet? That was very strange!

But then, Little John remembered seeing this exact toilet on YouTube. It was Skibidi toilet!

The toilet introduced himself as Skibidi and smiled at Little John.
"Hello! I want to be your best friend," said Skibidi.

Little John thought for a moment and then smiled back. "Okay, let's be friends!" he said.

Together, Little John and Skibidi started singing the Skibidi Toilet song. They sang and laughed, having so much fun!

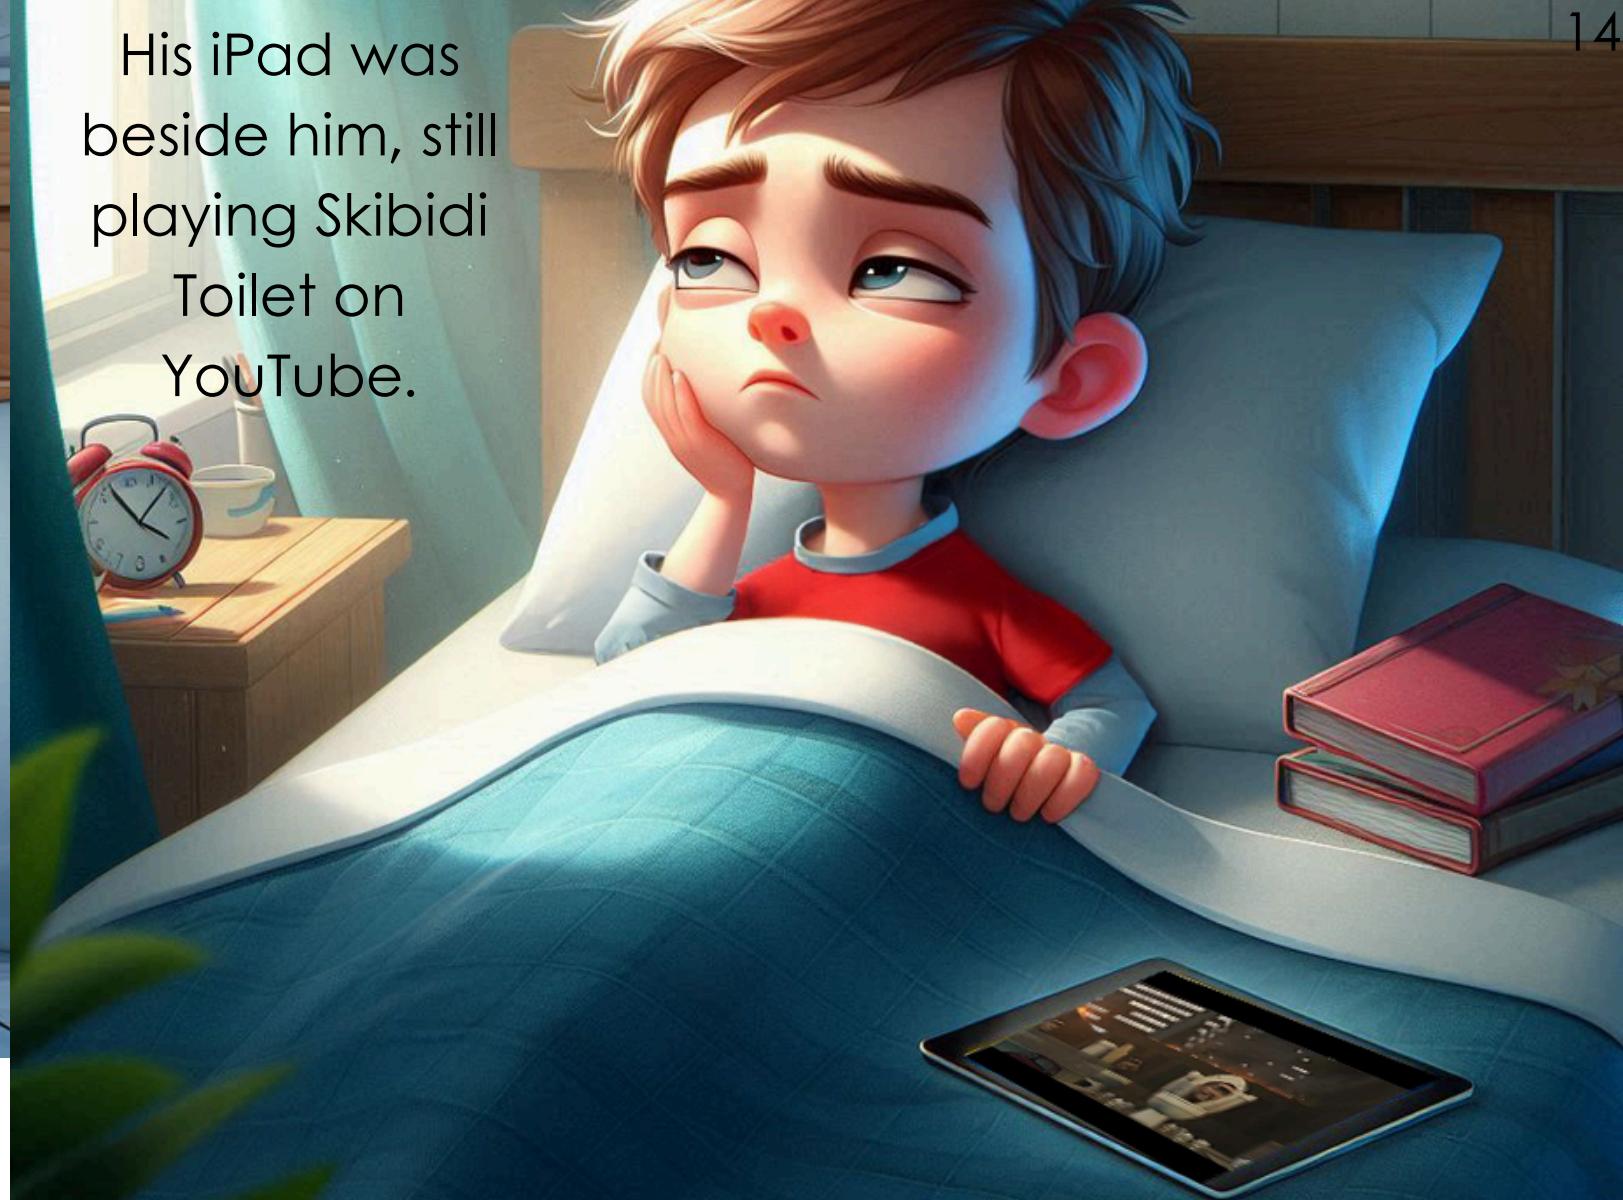

“Skibidi dop dop dop yes yes,” sang Little John. “Skibidi dop dop dip dip,” sang Skibidi.

They danced and sang until Little John felt so happy. He had a new friend, and using the big potty wasn't scary at all!

Suddenly, Little John saw the light coming through the window. He opened his eyes and realized he was in his bed.

His iPad was beside him, still playing Skibidi
Toilet on YouTube.

Little John smiled. It was all a dream!
But it was the best dream
he ever had.

He got up from bed and decided to use the big potty for real this time. He felt brave and ready.

He sat on the toilet and remembered his dream. He wasn't scared of the big potty anymore.

After using the toilet, Little John washed his hands all by himself and felt proud. He was truly a big boy now!

Little John ran to Mommy and Daddy and told them all about his amazing dream and how he used the big potty. They were so proud of him, too. Little John couldn't wait to use the toilet again!
